64. We Sing Your Mighty Power, O God

1 We sing your mighty power, O God, that made the mountains rise,
that spread the flowing seas abroad,
and built the lofty skies.
We sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
the moon shines full at your command,
and all the stars obey.

2 We sing your goodness, sovereign God, who filled the earth with food;
you formed the creatures with your word, and then pronounced them good.
Oh! how your wonders are displayed where'er we turn our eyes, if we survey the ground we tread, or gaze upon the skies.

3 There's not a plant or flower below but makes your glories known;
and clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from your throne.
While all that borrows life from you is ever in your care, and everywhere that we can be,
you, God, are present there.

600. Jesu, Jesu

[Refrain:]
Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love, show us how to serve the neighbors we have from you.

1 Kneels at the feet of his friends, silently washes their feet,
Master who acts as a slave to them. [Refrain]

2 Neighbors are rich and poor, varied in color and race, neighbors are near and far away. [Refrain]

3 These are the ones we should serve, these are the ones we should love;
all these are neighbors to us and you. [Refrain]

4 Loving puts us on our knees, serving as though we are slaves,
this is the way we should live with you. [Refrain]

5 Kneel at the feet of our friends, silently washing their feet,
this is the way we should live with you. [Refrain]
